

Time to Xchange

Building on the success of UK Trade & Investment's 2011 International Aerospace Xchange, the Xchange 2012, in partnership with A|D|S, will bring together UK supply chain companies, including global players such as Airbus, Rolls-Royce, Bombardier, AgustaWestland and their key partners, including GKN, Goodrich and SpiritAerosystems, to discuss how UK companies can more fully exploit international business opportunities.

Learn how to access major international supply chains

Gain a better understanding of global procurement processes

Explore issues with major aerospace suppliers and partners

The Exchange will take place in Central London on Tuesday 7 February 2012. Further information and details on how to reserve your place will be available soon.

The Xchange will also provide the platform to launch the annual update of the UK Aerospace International Strategy.

Please pass this information to your colleagues and suppliers.

If you would like to ensure you receive further information about the Xchange, please email aerospaceexchange@glasgows.co.uk or call the UKTI events team on 01772 767705.

SAVE THE DATE